mission: future-proofing the careers of BERG community members

AI is moving at the speed of light. We're here to move at the speed of thought.

It's still early. But some professionals are pulling ahead—
and others are falling behind.

WHY NOW

The new divide is AI-native and not.

AI is reshaping every job function — disrupting some, collapsing others, expanding the rest.

Economic mobility now depends on professionals committing to becoming AI-native.

Those most fluent in AI will drive organizational transformation — and peer-to-peer learning is one of the fastest paths to that fluency.

BERG is making sure our community is on the right side of the future job market.

WHO WE ARE

BERG Collective

A network of professionals committed to connection, professional development, and economic empowerment for each other.

Members come from 50+ companies — Amazon, NBA, PepsiCo, Fortune, Disney, Squarespace — across every business function and level.

Recent programming: the Betterment Financial Fluency series, and “From Connection to Collection” with the Whitney Museum.
